

Genesis 12:1 - 3

1 Then YHWH said to Abram, “Get going out from your land, and from your relatives, and from your father’s house, to the land that I will show you.

2 My heart’s desire is to make you into a great nation, to bless you, to make your name great so that you may be a blessing.

3 My desire is to bless those who bless you, but whoever curses you I will curse, and in you all the families of the earth will be blessed.

Genesis 12:11 - 13

11 Just as he was about to enter Egypt he said to Sarai his wife, "Look, please, I know that you are an attractive woman.

12 So when the Egyptians see you they'll say, 'This is his wife.' And they'll kill me; but you, they'll let live.

13 Please say that you are my sister, so that I'll be treated well for your sake, and my life will be spared because of you."

Genesis 12:14 - 15

14 When Abram came to Egypt, the Egyptians did see that the woman was very beautiful.

15 Indeed, Pharaoh's officials saw her and they raved about her to Pharaoh. Then the woman was taken into Pharaoh's house.

16 But Abram was treated well for her sake, and he got sheep, cattle, male donkeys, male and female slaves, female donkeys and camels.

Genesis 12:14 - 15

17 But Yah struck Pharaoh and his household with great plagues because of Sarai, Abram's wife.

18 So Pharaoh called Abram and said, "What's this that you did to me? Why didn't you tell me that she is your wife?"

19 Why did you say, 'She is my sister,' so that I took her to be my wife? Now, here is your wife. Take—and go!"

20 Then Pharaoh instructed men concerning him, and they expelled him, with his wife, and everything that belonged to him.

Genesis 12:14 - 15

8 So Abram said to Lot, “Please, let there be no strife between me and you, or between my shepherds and yours, since we are relatives.

9 Isn’t the whole land before you? Please separate yourself from me. If to the left, then I’ll go to the right, and if to the right, then I’ll go to the left.”

10 Lot lifted up his eyes and saw that the whole area surrounding the Jordan was well watered in its entirety (before Yah destroyed Sodom and Gomorrah)—like Yah’s garden, like the land of Egypt—till you come to Zoar.

11 So Lot chose for himself the whole area surrounding the Jordan. Lot journeyed to the east, and they separated from each other.

Hebrews 6:13 - 17

- 13 Now when Yah made His promise to Abraham—since He could swear by no one greater, He swore by Himself,
- 14 saying, “Surely I will bless you, and surely I will multiply you.”
- 15 And so after waiting patiently, Abraham reached the promise.
- 16 For people swear by someone greater; and the oath, as confirmation, is an end to all their disputing.
- 17 In the same way God, determining to point out more clearly to the heirs of the promise the unchanging nature of His purpose, guaranteed it with an oath.

Hebrews 6:18 - 20

18 So by two unchangeable things, in which it is impossible for Yah to lie, we who have fled for refuge might have strong encouragement to take hold of the hope set before us.

19 We have this hope as an anchor of the soul, both firm and steady—a hope that enters the inner place behind the curtain.

20 Yeshua has entered there as a forerunner on our behalf, having become Kohen Gadol “forever, according to the order of Melchizedek.”

Genesis 18:17-19

17 when Adonai said, “Should I keep secret from Abraham what I am about to do,

18 seeing that Abraham will most certainly become a great and mighty nation and in him all the nations of the earth will be blessed?

19 For I have made myself known to him so that he will command his sons and his household after him to keep the way of Adonai by doing righteousness and justice, so that Adonai may bring upon Abraham what He has spoken about him.”
